JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

"I AM ALONE IN THE WORLD."—The following touching incident is extracted from the eloquent appeal for the "Richmond Male Orphan Asylum" delivered on its 52nd anniversary, by Major Style:

One of the batteries of our old battalion was composed chiefly of Irishmen from a southern city—gallant fellows, but wild and reckless. The captaincy becoming vacant, a backwoods Georgia preacher, named C., was sent to command them. The men at first half amused, half insulted, soon learned to idolize as well as fear their preacher captain, who proved to be all, such a man as one seldom sees, a combination of Praise God-Barebones and Sir Philip Sydney, and with a dash of Headly Vicars about him. He had all the stern grit of the Puritan, with much of the chivalry of the cavalier and the zeal of the Apostle. There was at that time but one other Christian in his batery, a gunner named Allen Moore, also, a backwoods Georgian, and a noble, enthusiastic man and soldier. The only other living member of Moore's family was with him, a boy of not more than twelve or thirteen years, and the devotion of the elder brother to the younger was as tender as a mother's. The little fellow was a strange, sad, prematurely old child, who seldom talked, and never smiled. He used to wear a red zouave for that ill-befitted that peculiar, sallow, pallid complexion of the Pineywoods Georgian; but he was a perfect hero in a fight. 'Twas at Cold Harbor in '64. We had been all day shelling a working party of the enemy, and about sunset, as adjutant of the battalion, I was visiting the batteries, to arrange the guns for night firing. As I approached C.'s position, the sharp shooting had almost ceased, and down the line I could see the figures of the cannoneers standing out boldly against the sky. Moore at the trail, adjusting his piece for the night's work. His gunnery had been superb during the evening, and his blood was up. I descended into a little valley and lost sight of the group, but heard C.'s stern voice: "Set down, Moore, your gun is well enough; the sharpshooting isn't over yet.—Get down." I rose the hill. "One moment, Captain, my trail's a hair's breadth too much to the right;" and the gunner bent eagerly over the handspike. A sharp report—that unmistakable crash at the bullet against the skull, and all was over. 'Twas the last rifle shot on the line that night. The rushing together of the detachment obstructed my view; but as I came up, the sergeant stepped aside and said, "Look there, adjutant." Moore had fallen over on the trail, the blood gushing from his wound all over his face. His little brother was at his side instantly. No wildness, no tumult of grief. He knelt on the earth, and lifting Moore's head on his knees, wiped the blood from his forehead with the cuff of his own tattered shirt sleeve, and kissed the pale face again and again, but very quietly. Moore was evidently dead, and none of us cared to disturb the child. Presently he arose—quietly still, tearless still—gazed down on the dead brother, then around at us, and breataing the saddest sigh I ever heard, said just these words: "Well, I am alone in the world." The preacher captain instantly, sprang forward, and placing his hands on the poor boy's shoulder, said solemnly but cheerfully, "No, my child, you are not alone, for the Bible says, 'when my father and mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up, and Allen was both father and mother to you; besides, I'm going to take you up, too; you shall sleep under my blankets to-night." There was not a dry eye in the group; and when months afterwards, the whole battallion gathered on a quiet Sabbath evening on the banks of the Appomattox, to witness a baptism, and C. at the water's edge, tenderly handed this child to the officiating minister; and receiving him again when the ceremony was over, threw a blanket about the little shivering form, carried him into the bushes, changed his clothing, and then reappeared, carrying the bundle of wet clothes, and he and the child walked away hand in hand to camp—then there were more tears, manly, noble, purifying tears, and I heard the surgeon say, "Faith! the captain has fulfillfilled his pledge to that boy." My friends, hear the plea of the orphan: "I am alone in the world." How will you answer it? What will you do with it? Will you pass my noble Georgian's pledge to "take him up?" Will you keep it as he kept it?

SHE NEVER LEAVES HIM.—Look at the career of a man as he passes through the world, a man visited by misfortune! How often is he left by his fellow-men to sink under the weight of affliction unheeded and alone! One friend of his own sex forgets him, another abandons him, and a third betrays him: but woman, faithful woman, follows him in his affliction with unshaken affection; braves the changes of feeling, of his temper embittered by the disappointments of the world, with the highest of all virtue, in resigned patience ministers to his wants even when her own are hard and pressing; she weeps for him, tear for tear, in his distress and is the first to catch and reflect a ray of joy, should but one light up his countenance in the midst of his suffering, and she never leaves him in his misery while there remains one act of love, duty, or compassion to be performed, and at last, when life and sorrow come to an end, she follows him to the grave with an ardor of affection which death itself cannot destroy.

DRESS AND APPEARANCE.—An exchange gets off the following on the subject of dress and appearance, which, taking the world generally, is not far wide of the truth:

"A coat that has a mark of use upon it is a recommendation to people of sense, and a hat with too much nap and too high a lustre a derogatory circumstance. The best coats are on the backs of penniless lops, broken down merchants, clerks with pitiful salaries, and men that do not pay up. The heaviest gold chains dangle from the fobs of gamblers and gentlemen of limited, very limited, means; costly ornaments on ladies indicate to the eyes that are well opened the fact of a silly lover or husband that are cramped for funds. And when a pretty woman go by in plain and neat apparel, it is the pn mption that she has fair expectations, and a husband that can show a balance in his favor. For women are like books too much gilding makes men suspicious that the binding is the most important part.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of study and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practicably, without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Halls, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed; in short, this invention brings the luxurious and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light, of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find ready sale in every county, so finally that those this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps. Thousands of them will be used in offices, as this light is one-half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation durning the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills in workman-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 400 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the back ward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand in the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

D. J. WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 22d to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. P. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular Saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a line 14 inches deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.

Dec 23rd 1869. ALDRIDGE PARTIN.

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the old Mill of 48 inch saw and same water wheel.

P. YATES.
JAMES PENNY.

This last mentioned Mill may be seen on Walnut Creek, 5 miles South of Raleigh.

CEDAR BIRDS, SECESSION AND CEBE.

We have seceded from Raleigh for the present, and are safe at home shooting cedar-birds and robins with our little boys. Five cedar-birds at one shoot has been our best, and three robins at a fire our next best. But this is better than shooting at Moore, of Chowan, for, in shooting cedar-birds and robins we can bag our game, and he is said to be a poor sportsman who would "shoot game not worth bagging."

Such were our reflections while our little boys were gathering up the birds. We philosophized and reflected upon what we should have done with Moore if we had killed him. As the butchers would say, he was fat and in good killing order, but then he was not fit for corning, (though it was said he was corned at the time,) nor would he have answered for sausages, notwithstanding, they make sausages of very questionable carcases, in some places.

But who would eat him? not we; nor kill him either, unless he should seek our life for coupling his name with that of Sinclair's for, that, he said, "was the most unkindest cut of all."

One of our little boys asked why we didn't "shoot the scalawag when he was down?" We told him his brother prevented, by catching hold of us. "Then," asked he, "why did'nt you shoot his brother?" Then the question presented itself forcibly to our own mind, why didn't we? In the first place we did not recognize Mr. Augustus Moore until he told us who he was, and then he had us forced back on the steps struggling to get our pistol. If Mr. Augustus Moore accompanied his brother with a view to the attack, then he was as fit a target as his brother, but we have no evidence that such was the case.

If we had, as is usual in such cases, been informed of the intention of an attack, we could have been re-enforced by a brother, also; but "all's well that ends well," and we are glad now that we had no notice.—Mr. Moore has more cause, however, to be thankful than we, because but for the intervention of his brother, he would have been welcomed home by John Page and the fifty constituents to whom he sent the Standard, "in a box." And this reminds us of a little incident.

Col. Moore had a conversation with John Page recently, in the course of which he said to John, as we learn, "I do not think, John, that I can be elected to the United States Senate, because Pool and Abbott are both from the East, and the next Senator must come from the West; but if you will send me back to the Legislature, I can so manage that Judge Reade or Judge Settle will be elected United States Senator; the election of either will create a vacancy on the Supreme Court Bench, and I am pretty sure that I can get that vacancy." With these noble aspirations it would have been cruel to interfere; so the Colonel is spared to John Page and those other folly, and to the Supreme Court Bench, provided he can get on it. We hope he may long continue to live in the color of friendship with the former, even though the adverse fates may prevent his accession to the latter. At the same time we are spared to live happily and shoot cedar-birds with our boys.

But, the reader may have asked before this, why did you put Cebe's name at the head of your article? What has he to do with cedar-birds, robins, Moore of Chowan, John Page and that other fifty to whom the Standard was sent? Only this: We never handle short arms but we think of Cebe.

When we were up in the 58th district to take part with Capt. Whiteside in his winter campaign against the Logan-and-Harris dynasty, we were standing at the foot of a beautiful cascade, plainly visible from the town of Columbus, it bethought us to discharge our pistol which had been loaded for four months. We accordingly took aim at a statue of ice, of about the same manly proportions of Cebe, fired, striking the statue about where the waistband would have been had it been clothed, like Cebe was in Davy street, and shivered the icicle into fragments.

This was an improvement on our last previous effort, when, at Smithfield, we were barely able to hit the broad post that support the bridge.

We much prefer that it was an icicle Cebe, instead of the veritable article, we practiced on at Columbus. A distinguished Radical member of the Legislature recently said, he thought Cebe the best and most honest man in Holden's cabinet. We are inclined to endorse the sentiment, for we know nothing against Cebe, officially, except his connection with the purchase of 8000 acres of land on Deep River and the choice of a site for the Penitentiary.

If the reader is able now to trace the connection of Cebe with the cedar-birds and secession, we take our leave of him, and turn him over to read what the Local says.

TRY IT.—The New York Tribune declares that for the first nine months of the present administration the national debt was reduced at the rate of a little over three dollars per second. If Gen. Grant is anxious to pay the national debt at once, let him stop the stealage of his party for two hours and a half.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Bill to incorporate the Georgetown and Charlotte Railroad Company, passed.

Bill to authorize the County Commissioners of Cumberland to levy a special tax, passed.

Bill to authorize the County Commissioners of Gaston to levy a special tax, passed.

Bill relative to taking fish from the waters of North East Branch of the Cape Fear River, passed.

Bill to authorize the County Commissioners of Haywood to levy a special tax, passed.

Bill to authorize the County Commissioners of Warren to levy a special tax, passed.

Bill to authorize the County Commissioners of Wayne to collect arrears of taxes for the year 1867, passed.

On motion of Mr. Faukner the rules were suspended and a (public) bill for the relief of Sheriffs and tax collectors of the State, was taken up and after some discussion was rejected.

Mr. Shoffner moved a reconsideration of the vote.

Mr. Robbins moved to lay the motion on the table which prevailed.

THIRD READING OF BILLS RESUMED.

Bill to authorize the County Commissioners of Jones to levy a special tax, passed.

Bill to authorize the County Commissioners of Lenoir to levy a special tax, passed.

Bill to authorize the Sheriff of Burke County to collect arrears of taxes.

On motion of Mr. Love it was indefinitely postponed.

Bill in relation to drawing seines in the waters of Tar River, was amended and passed.

Bill to incorporate the town of Robesonville in the county of Robeson, passed.

On motion of Mr. White the rules were suspended, and the bill to incorporate the Society of relief for the benefit of the Superannuted clergy and Widows and Orphans of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was taken up.

Mr. Lindsay thought it was a dangerous precedent to set and moved the further consideration be postponed in order to have time to look into it.

Mr. Smith, of Wilkes, was in favor of postponement. There were some objectionable features in it that he desired removed, and one especially the word, "South," "for the benefit of the Methodist Church South," he thought it was time to stop such sectional notions, he knew no North and no South no East and no West, &c.

Mr Robbins opposed postponement and urged the immediate passage of the bill. It was a simple proposition to incorporate a benevolent society, and he hoped no Senator would record his vote against it.

Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg, said the argument of the Senator from Wilkes was entirely out of place and had no connection whatever with the subject under consideration, the question of Union of Churches had nothing to do with it, the only object was to incorporate a body of gentlemen for a benevolent purpose, to take care of the Superannated clergy of their denomination.

Mr. Graham said he could not see any just cause for objection to this bill. It was so plain and simple, there was no good reason for postponing it, any Senator on the floor by attending to its reading could easily understand its object, he hoped that no further objection would be offered to its immediate passage.

Mr. Jones of Columbus said he was unable to see the cause of opposition to this truly commendable enterprise, a proposition to take care of the worn out Preachers and their widows and orphans, a class of our citizens who live now on less than is expended every year on so many packs of hounds. If the bill has anything in it that would interfere with the mode of worship, or the peculiar doctrines of any other denomination, such as immersion or dipping and once in grace always in grace, there possibly might be some cause for objection, but there was no such thing in the bill and it should pass.

The bill finally passed its third reading.

Those who voted against it are Messrs. Ballamy, Lindsay, Long, Love, Respass and Smith.

On motion of A. H. Galloway, col. the rules were suspended and the bill to incorporate the Hebrew Cemetery Association of the City of Raleigh, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The question recurred upon the call for the previous question.

The call was put to a vote and adopted.

The question then recurred upon Hayes' amendment, to Harris', of Wake, amendment (the amendment requires that the Committee report to the General Assembly by the 15th of March; if the Legislature should not be in session, the Committee shall report to the Governor or to his counsel.

The yeas and nays being called, the amendment to the amendment was rejected by a vote of yeas 64, nays 4.—(Messrs. W. T. Hayes, col. Reynolds, col. Carey, col. and White, voting in the affirmative.)

A long debate occurred upon the admissability of the following additional sections "That the said Commission shall be increased by the addition of three (3) citizens to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Mr Jarvis raised the point of order that the amendment was not germain to the subject matter of the proposition before the House.

Mess. French, Downing and Seymour contended that the amendment was germain to the subject under debate.

Messrs. Durham, Jarvis, and others held the opposite.

After a long discussion upon parliamentary usages and law, the Chair held that the point of order was well taken.

Mr. French appealed from the decision of the Chair. Upon the appeal the yeas and nays were called and the House sustained the Chair by a vote of yeas 52 nays 19.

The question recurred upon an amendment offered in the shape of an additional section: "That the said Commissioners shall make a whole or partial report to the General Assembly before the 15th of March next, or if the General Assembly be not then in session to the Superintendent of Public Works.

The yeas and nays being called the House rejected the amendment by a vote of yeas 36, nays 41.

The question then recurred upon another amendment offered by Mr. French, to section 4 of the bill, to insert after the word "dollars, the words "in the aggregate."

LETTER TO GUVNER HOLDEN.

CHAPPLE HILL, IN THE Neo Dispensation, 9th of Feb., 1870.

DEAR GUVNER:—I feel under the necessity of ritin you a few lines to let you no that I told you so, an it has turnt out adzackly as I sed. When I seen you last fall at the fair,—you remember you was a bamboozlin of Ivins, the Recorder man, when I cum in,—I tole you yore plan of sending of solgers to Orringe wood fail, and you would hafter call out the talled melishy before things would be sot right, and so it is. When solgers has no more respect for a republikin than they has for a seseeder or a dimmycrat. When they fust cum, one of our brother leaguers fotch a kag of whiskey to em, an sir, they tuck the kag an run off with it, socked him down an tuck everry green of his money, an when he went to the Curnel, the Curnel sent a guard arter the whiskey an suckreliously pulled out the spile and split every drap of it on the ground, cussin the republikin as his sperits ebbed away. Another innocent cullered constituent of yourn cum to the Curnel with a story of outrages committed on his bar back by the Ku Klux.—Sur, the Curnel made him pull off his shirt, and not findin enny whelps on his back nor nary mark at all, he perfanely tole the nigger to go to — to —, well, the same place you sed the Soopreme Cote mont go when they arrested Adams. Now, Guvner, you will haiter take my plan at last, and behold the glorious change!

Call out twelve hundred tailed melishy, and stashun em at the Univerity. This will give a hundred to each of the twelve schools at once, an it is a clear case to my mind, after able and perfound investigation on the subjick that this is the only way you will ever git stoodents for the University an fulfil yore prommis that it must an shall be hilt up. Then the influence of these 1200 men will be verry grate in the stiffnecked an rebellyous county of Orringe that needs rekonstruction. The members of our party kan carry out the grate principerples of the Legislative address by burnin the barns an eatin the pork of rebbles an ristycrats, without bein ignerminjusly hung to the lim of a tree. But the improovment will be more manifest on this Hill than enny whars else. That will be a good market fur Perfesser McKeever's crost, an he can sell it by the barl, instid of bein obleiged to peddle it, in a horse bucket, an hit sin llin powerful. Perfesser Patrick could turn a onest penny by supplyin of the troopes with terbacker. But the gratest improovment wood be in the Collidge of the Inglish Language. Gurner, them yankeys is no perfection to Perfesser Mar-lin at all. When they fust cum the primerrys that peruses spellin, readin, an jogrify in his Collidge was a little skeered, an sorter quit bumbardin of the perfesser with sc ras, an a holleren dont shoot! whenever he cum in site. But when they found they was not tuck up for thar menny transgressifications, they jest begun to holler an chunck acorns as much as they natally pleased.

Sur the Curnel an the yankeys jest laft, an then the primerrys growd bold an swore they would have the Institooshun of the troops was not removed outer the Collidge buildins. Presidint Pool, that noble ole Roe-man stood by the ole homestid, an begged the boys to desist from thar mad purpose of destroyin the University. Gentlemen, sez he, "if the gallant primerrys leaves, the streth of the University is gone, and its sun is sot in darkness." But Guvner the primerrys raised a shout, called the noble president by the ignerminjus subrocket of Sol, an snode him plum under. The troops was removed, an the littlest barelooted primerry in Collidge, with his britches buttoned over his jarket, will ruthlessly project a relentless acorn at Perfesser Martlin with the strenth of a young giant an the terrible outcries of a Ku Klux, so that the bar of that grate man stands on eend with turrer at the everlastin peril of his life from acorns and gravels. But when the 1200 is called out under the new war bill, new perfessers will be needed, an I beg leaf to nomernate that noble marter William Huskey as perfesser of Music, both playin of clunes an singin. I hav never hearn him sing but wonst and then he sung most melodus; it was when the Ku Klux plade a chune upon his back. For the Collidge of Persite larnin I nomernate Perfesser Coriess. He is eminently qualified for this cheer by his perliteness in escortin of cullerd ladies into Church at the Snops.

The Agricultural Collidge can be carried on to grate advantage in the gardins of the perfessers, an part of Guv. Swain's big ole yard can be fotch into cultivation whar perfesser Patrick cut down the big oke trees. Mister Ashley mout send on for a seedin of donuts an punkin pies, to be planted with the rest of his new idees in the fertile soil of this noble ole State.

I cannot in cander say Guvner, that things has worked harmonous an homolligous altogether, but I cannot close this interrestin eppisale without congratterlatin you upon the grate progress which you have made in edgecatin the people through the University. That worst was a time when female wimmin an scool marms was thort auffishient to teach spellin, an jogriphy; but that day of ignance is past, and them studies is perused in a "Collidge of Modern Languidges" with a perfesser a drawin of a big sallary!

I must also tell you the noos about our cersieties. Me an the gentleman from Orringe found it verry difficult to krep up the Di by ourselves so we made a proppersition to the fics to jine us; an to take away all obstickles connected with the name, we called the noo cersiety the Dilanthropic." When that grate union was consummated, perfesser Patrick giv a possum supper, all hands got fite, an the primerrys wound up the sillibration by bustin open the arkives of the ole sercieties an scatterin the papers to the lore winds of heving.

I beg leaf to remane Guvner,
With fond memories of thee,
Your respectabul corrysponder,
BILLY BARLOW.

BANKRUPT BANKS.

Hon. O. H. Dockery, Representative in Congress from this District, has introduced the following bill, which will be of interest to many of our people. We learn, says the Wilmington Journal, that it will most probably pass:

An act amendatory of an Act entitled "An Act to establish a uniform system of Bankruptcy throughout the United States." That when any bond, note or other obligation may be due or payable to any Bank chartered by an Act of the Legislature of any State prior to the 12th day of April, 1861, and such Bank may have gone into bankruptcy under the Act of Congress in such cases made and provided; the Assignee of such Bankrupt shall be compelled to receive any note or bill of such Bank as a legal set off, and in satisfaction of such bond, note or other obligation due and payable to such Bank; and the bills or notes of such bank shall be received in any Court of the United States to sustain the plea of set off to any suit brought on such note, bond or other obligation due and payable to such Bank, whether such note, bond or other obligation be drawn payable to such Bank, or the cashier thereof, or to any other party.

Masonic.—There will be a meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, A. Y. M., this (Monday) evening at the usual hour. Brethren are requested to attend punctually.

Fatal Accident.—While the mail train coming east was approaching Graham station on the N. C. Railroad, Friday night, and was slacking speed, Mr. J. S. Brown, of Greensboro' attempted to jump from the car, and was thrown on the track, a portion of the train passing over him and so crushing and mangling him that he died almost instantaneously. Mr. Brown was a respectable citizen of Guilford, and was acting as guager in the revenue service of the United States.

Going to Enlarge.—We hear it stated that a project is on foot to enlarge the corporate limits of Raleigh a half mile in every direction. Every body knows why; the reason became apparent at a discussion in brother Tupper's church, not long since. But we think the enlargemist too small; let the boundary lines extend from Walnut to Crabtree and proportionally east and west. We hope, however, the Legislature will be a little cautious how they put any more power in the hands of irresponsible voters to tax the already heavily burdened taxpayers and property holders of the city.

Sausage.—We are fond of sausage, whether in cakes, or in that shape which is the embodiment of the poetic idea of "linked sweetness long drawn out." Mr. J. G. Bromell has sent us a sample of his own manufacture, or rather composition, of sausage meat, which he is daily putting up, and is ready to supply to families to order, in quantities to suit. The ample sample submitted to our investigation proved satisfactory. The sage, salt and pepper, were admixed in due and palatable proportion, the meat finely ground and with just sufficient adiposity to prove nourishing without producing dyspepsia.

Mr. Bromell is hereby notified to leave us two pounds every other day until further orders.

N. C. Home Insurance Co.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this Company was held at their office, in this city, on Thursday and Friday last.

The annual exhibits, we learn, indicated judicious and energetic management on the part of the officers of the Company, and justified the declaration of a Dividend.

The following gentlemen were elected Directors of the Company for the ensuing year, viz: Messrs. R. H. Battle, Jr., W. E. Pell, C. B. Root, J. H. Davis, R. B. Haywood, Jno. Nichols and W. D. Jones.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors, the following officers were elected, viz: President, R. H. Battle, Jr., Vice-President, Rev. W. E. Pell; Secretary and Treasurer, Seaton Gales; Assistant Secretary and Local Agent, W. H. Murdoch; Executive Committee, R. H. Battle, Jr., C. B. Root and J. H. Davis.

The Company enters upon its second fiscal year with renewed encouragement, and we predict, will run a career of success.

By the way, it has recently paid two losses,—one of them for $2,500,—with commendable promptitude.

THE HONEY BEE.

How worker eggs are developed. The eggs of the queen are of pearly white color. They are laid in the cells and attached to the bottom by means of a glutinous substance with which they are covered. They are hatched by the heat of the bees concentrated within the brooding space. The larva emerge from the eggs about the third day after it has been laid. They lie at the bottom of the cell in a curved form and are immediately fed by the workers, with a jelly prepared of honey and pollen mixed with water. This food is easily digested by the larva, and from its perfect assimilation leaves no excrementitious matter in the intestinal canal. The insect grows so rapidly, that on the sixth day it can no longer lie in a curved form in the bottom of the cell, and stretches out lengthwise. As soon as this occurs, the workers close the mouth of the cell with a covering of wax. The larva is fed during six days by the nursing bees. There are eight days intervening, from the time the egg is laid, until the cell is capped. The larva lies in the cell until the twenty first day when it emerges a perfectly matured bee. A young bee when it first emerges from its cell, has a grayish hue and is very easily distinguished from the older ones, but it soon becomes darker.

On the twenty first day the bee cuts through the cover of the cell with her mandibles, requiring about half an hour. The young bees do not immediately leave the hive or engage in gathering honey or pollen, but remain about ten days longer, in the meantime they are engaged in nursing the brood. It has been shown by experiments, that it is not essentially necessary that a card of comb containing eggs should be in the centre of a cluster of bees to make them hatch, it can be accomplished by artificial means, such as placing them in a room of the proper temperature. Yet, there will have to be bees to take care of the brood after the eggs have hatched.—One great cause of the slow increase of bees in the early part of the season, is the want of bees to get up the proper amount of animal heat to incubate the eggs. For this reason all stocks should be kept strong with bees to insure the proper amount of animal heat. The queen always lays her eggs in the cells in the center of the cluster and if there are but few bees, then the increase will be slow, because she will not extend the diameter of the brood space, until the first brood have hatched to increase the diameter of the cluster. Therefore all stocks should be strong with bees in the Spring to insure early swarms.

NEWTON, N. C.

Editor Sentinel:—At the solicitation of a friend, I visited the Court House in the town of Newton, a few days ago and though our taxes are high enough, yet the tax payer cannot but endorse the commendable effort on the part of the County Commissioners to improve and care for our Public buildings. Our Board of Commissioners is composed of the true grit, all gentlemen of intelligence and experience. Short time ago they determined to make some important alterations and improvements in our Court House and settled upon our enterprizing townsman Mr. Geo. Sezer to take charge of the work, and with great tact and fidelity has he executed his trust.

With the cost of about $500, we have a Court House that will compare favorably whith any in the State. The Bar has been entirely renovated and most tastefully arranged for convenience and comfort, every thing looks as neat and sweet as a "new pin," comfortable arm chairs have been procured for the lawyers and the Jury, and many other improvements have been made. There is but one thing left undone and that is the purchase of a carpet and a carpet we must have.

I hope the matter will be favorably considered by the Commissioners and I have no doubt it will be. Mr. Setzer deserves much credit in economizing the cost of the work. The work has been very heavy and disagreable, and necessarily consuming much time and expense. The Court House has been standing for 25 years and has never undergone any improvements. Having a surplus in the Treasury it could not have been applied to a more needy and useful purpose.

There can be no good ground for complaint and it is to be hoped none will be made. However though it would be a hard matter to please every body, and I suppose that such was not contemplated when the work begun. Ours is the first Court on the Circuit, and opens on the 1st Monday in March. I understand there is quite a number of civil cases to be tried and in two of which the constitutionality of the reconstruction laws are involved. Judge Mitchell is on this circuit and carries the ermine as it was worn in days of old. He is indeed an honorable and illustrious exception to the Judiciary in North Carolina. He is an honest upright Judge, a good lawyer and a most estimable gentleman. He is known up here as old Col. Mitchell, and enjoys the unbounded confidence of our people, and is universally loved and admired. He administers justice in the old fashioned way, and seldom ever errs.

A Torpid System.

Sometimes, without any assignable cause, the physical strength and animal spirits give way, and a strange torpor falls alike on the body and intellect. There is little or no pain perhaps, but the natural vigor and elasticity of the nervous and muscular system seems to have departed, and an indifference to the pleasures of life, and even of its grave responsibilities, takes the place of that earnest interest in both which characterizes every well balanced mind when in a healthy condition.

This state of partial collapse is often the premonitory symptoms of some serious malady. Its indications unmistakably that the vital powers are languishing and need a stimulant. In such cases the effect of a few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is wonderfully beneficial. The great tonic wakes up the system from its drowse. The secretions and the circulation receive a new impetus. The relaxed nerves recover their elasticity under the operations of the specific, like the slackened strength of a musical instrument in the process of tuning. Lethargy and debility are replaced by energy and vigor, the spirits rise, and life that almost seemed a burden while the season of depression lasted, becomes once more enjoyable. That such a radical change should be produced by a remedy entirely devoid of the powerful alkaloids and miserable so extensively used in modern practice, may seem incredible to those who pin their faith on the medicinal efficacy of active poisons, but if these skeptics will take the trouble to enquire of those who have tested the corrective and alterative virtues of the Bitters under the circumstances described, they will find the statement to be true.

A CARD.

Smithfield, N. C., Feb. 11, 1870.

Mr. Editor:—A card appeared in the Standard of a late date, over the signature of that celebrated and far-famed, John Dick Massey, Justice of the Peace, of this county, in which he says he has discovered that I am the author of an editorial which appeared in the Sentinel last Monday week! and says the whole article is false. He drags in the names of several gentlemen of this place to prove his assertions; in the first place, I would suppose that no person but a fool would make the charge, and these gentlemen, whose names he has the impudence to use, authorize me to say that he did it without their knowledge or consent, and that they shall hold him personally responsible. But I hope they will excuse him, for he is a poor, miserable, low creature, that cannot harm gentlemen.

Very respectfully,
E. G. HILL.

Mr. Editor:—Permit me a brief space in your columns for the purpose of denying a statement made by a correspondent signing himself "Contingencies," in the Sentinel of the 12th, viz:—that a "whiskery" was being "run" in my office, in the House of Representatives. The statement is utterly untrue, I write this in justice to the members of the House as well as myself.

John H. Boner,
Clerk of the House.

For the Sentinel.

Raleigh, Feb. 12, 1870.

Mr. Editor:—My attention has been called to a communication in the Sentinel of this morning signed "Contingencies," in which some solicitous and over-anxious patriot states that I have a "Bar" in the Senate wing of the Capitol." Now Mr. Editor this is simply not true, and I defy any man to show that I have ever had anything resembling a "Bar." I do not keep spirits to sell or give away.

When senators desire me to send into the city for spirits for them, as they sometimes do, of course I do so and it is carried into some of the Committee rooms. This Sir is the extent of my connection with the matter. The charges against me contained in the article alluded to are purely gratuitous and entirely unfounded. If the author of the article will enquire of the members of the Senate of either party he will find my statements fully corroborated.

Truly Yours,

The bill for the sale of land on the Sea Islands in Beaufort county, S. C., was reported.

Sherman offered a resolution reiterating the sympathy of the United States with Cuba in its efforts to secure independence. The resolution declares that the United States recognize the existence of a state of war between the Kingdom of Spain and the Colony of Cuba, waged on the part of Cuba to establish its independence, and the U. S. will observe strict neutrality between the belligerent parties, as is their duty under the law of nations. After a brief discussion, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and Soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

R. Lebrman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulterations, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. MEDICAL.

HENRY'S
CARBOLIC
CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR, OR
BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all impurities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions Salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Waste of Vital Matter, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villainous diseases. Vaccination pus was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without diseases, and both he ame in acted alike. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and know not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and Aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparts a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye,
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all Sides.

For all affections of the kindneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin diseases. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbus, Mo., I suffered tortures with running sores. Since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady:—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Yes yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5. Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, RETENTION OF THE URINE, &c,
And for Female Diseases,
Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

UPWARD AND ONWARD!!

WHY IS IT BEST TO INSURE IN THE

BROOKLYN LIFE?

BECAUSE,

AMONG OTHER REASONS, IT IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN THE UNITED STATES WHICH PRESENTS THE GREAT FEATURE OF GUARANTEEING DEFINITE

CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

ALL POLICIES

Are non-forfeitable after two full Annual Premiums have been paid.

The policy-holders of this Company may travel or reside where they choose—anywhere on the Globe.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company.

DIVIDENDS ARE PAID IN CASH,

or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

IS A HOME COMPANY.

Owned and conducted by Southern men. It employs its funds at home for the benefit of Southern enterprises.

IT IS THE PIONEER COMPANY OF THE SOUTH, in all the new and liberal features of Life Insurance, presenting advantages not offered by any other Company, note the following points.

1st. Low Rates of Insurance, with a credit of one third, the Premium as a perpetual Loan.

2d. THIRTY DAYS GRACE for the payment of all premiums, and the Policy held good for that length of time.

3rd. Policies Non-forfeiting after the first payment.

4th. Policies indisputable from any cause save fraud.

5th. No restrictions of Residence, Travel or occupation.

6th. It is a Mutual insurance Company, ninety four per cent of the Profits are divided among the insured, on the contribution plan, and as money commands higher rates of Interest in the South than North or East, the probability is almost certain that the dividends will exceed those of Northern Companies, this reducing the premiums to their lowest actual level.

7th. Under the Charter of this Company, Polices of insurance are not subject to the debts of the Insured. Polices in favor of a wife or children are payable to them or their guardians direct.

8th. This company issues policies guaranteeing six per cent. compound interest in addition to the insurance of the amount insured. Parties about to insure would do well to examine the tables and plans of this company before insuring in any other company. The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, Jonas H. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans, and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coast wise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,21
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seven eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and sixty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 15,307 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
